A Woman's Heart: God's Dwelling Place Study by Beth Moore | Taught by Jenny Thomas

The building of the tabernacle in the wilderness dramatically illustrates God's persistent desire to relate to His children by bringing reconciliation and revealing His glory. And certainly, no Old Testament event so richly prefigures the coming of the true Tabernacle, Jesus Christ. You will be challenged to prepare your heart to become a dwelling place for the Most High God.

>>10-week study, Starts Tuesday, February 3, 6:30–8:30 p.m.

A Walk Through Romans: Chapters 9-16 Taught by Susan Hearn

Written by the apostle Paul, Romans is the most comprehensive theological book in the Bible. In the first 8 chapters, we learned about the problem of sin and the forgiveness that God offers to us. In chapters 9-16 Paul continues the subject of salvation by faith concluding with practical applications for daily life. New and continuing students are welcome.

>>8-week study, Starts Saturday, February 7, 9–10:30 a.m.

Judges: the Flawed and the Flawless Taught by Lindsay Lewis

In a time of massacre, immorality and unfaithfulness, Judges reveals to us the God of mercy and long-suffering who repeatedly rescues His people. It is a book that points us to our ultimate rescue through Christ Jesus. Discover how this window into the history of God's people teaches us about the Flawed and the Flawless.

Bible Study Teachers

Jenny Thomas

Jenny is a single, working woman, with a BA in Communications at Georgia State University and a Masters in Intercultural Studies (Missions) from Columbia International Seminary. She is a woman in love with the Lord and her journey of faith has led her to a passionate awareness of God's presence and power, moment-by-moment and day-by-day. Her heart is discipleship, specifically seeing believers grounded in their faith through a thorough knowledge and understanding of the Word of God and a dynamic, personal, and intimate relationship with the Lord. She has made the phrase, "To Know Him and to Make Him Known" her life's pursuit.

Susan Hearn

Susan has been married to Joe for 40 years and with 5 grown children and soon to be 17 grandchildren, she has a full and busy life. In between visits with family, Susan loves planting flowers, vegetables, and pulling lots of weeds! Since putting her faith in Jesus Christ at age 28, she has grown more convinced than ever that God's word is the authority for all of life. Although she has no formal biblical training, her hunger to know what God Himself says motivates her to study in an effort to "rightly divide the word of truth", be transformed by it, and to share that truth with all who will listen.

Lindsay Lewis

Lindsay is the Minister of Discipleship, Women, and Missions at One Heart Church. After following God's call on her life, she received her Masters of Divinity from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Lindsay has a passion for the Word, and desires to see women come to a deeper understanding and knowledge of the one true God. Lindsay is a Midwest girl, with a love for barbeque, baseball, and family gatherings. She is a voracious reader, a news junkie, an aspiring runner, and a food enthusiast.
